FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Freedman Arts District announces Angela Dore as Executive Director

BEAUFORT, S.C. – Freedman Arts District is pleased to announce Angela Dore as its executive director. Dore is a fifth generation native of Beaufort. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Spelman College and earned her Master of Arts degree in Business Design and Arts Leadership from Savannah College of Art and Design. Her background in arts administration is rooted in arts advocacy programming and implementation, public art initiatives, arts education for K-12 and higher education students, and providing consultation to arts organizations.

“I am delighted to have the opportunity to be a part of this team and I look forward to seeing Beaufort become one the best small arts towns in the country,” said Dore. Dore will be responsible for developing fine arts education initiatives, directing projects, and illuminating Lowcountry arts and culture.

Freedman Arts District

The Freedman Arts District promotes and encourages arts, artists, artistic endeavors, and art enthusiasts within the District. It aims to provide rich arts and cultural experiences, arts education, programming, and supports the economic revitalization of the District.
